

Week of 2-18 to 2-22	World Geography		World History
	Objective	Activity	Objective	Activity
Monday	The students will be introduced and to the physical and political geography of Southwest Asia	The students will label a map with the political geography, physical geography, and natural resources. They will also create a chart detailing characteristics of countries.	Introduction to The Ottoman Empire	The students will construct a bubble map of words that describe the Ottoman Empire.
Tuesday	The students will understand the importance of oil to the region.	Class discussion on oil based off of a handout about oil and its uses	First day of board game	The students will create a board game that will be about the Ottoman Empire.
Wednesday/Thursday	Introduce cultures and conflict in the region	The students will read an article detailing the Palestinian/Israeli conflict and write an essay over it. There will also be a class discussion on the issue.	Board game creation	The students will continue to work in groups on their board games, and finish them to be played on Friday.
Friday	Introductory Quiz over Southwest Asia	The students will complete a quiz over Southwest Asia.	Board game day	The students will trade and play board games with other groups within the class. Board game bests will also be voted on.